300 Sub-Freshmen See Ursinus At Open House

110 High And Prep School Visitors Take Scholarship Examinations

Three hundred students from high schools and prep schools in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Maryland, and the District of Columbia were guests of Ursinus College this past Saturday and Sunday in the third annual Open House sponsored by the College administration for prospective students.

Early Saturday morning registration desks were set up in Bomberger, where sub-freshmen reported upon their arrival and were provided with a program of events and tickets of admission for the various activities. Paul Craigie '38, was in charge of the registration.

After registration, student guides were furnished to pilot the initiate about the campus. In Bomberger the visitors found an extensive history display prepared under Dr. Elizabeth White's supervision, and a pictorial history of Ursinus College and its publications.

In the Alumni Memorial Library there was an exhibition of rare books and early College publications, and the Bernard Collection of relics from all parts of the world.

The Science Building was filled with interesting pageantry displays and physical, biological, and chemical experiments and phenomena.

The Tea Dance in the upper dining room in Freeland at 4:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon was extremely well attended. Planned by a committee headed by Virginia Fenton '37, the dance was furnished with rhythm by Dr. William Philip's 12-piece College band.

In the evening, Dr. Reginald Sibbald's "Ghost Train" cast, which has been playing to high schools in an Ursinus-advertising program, presented the melodrama to a house-full of students and prospective students.

In the evening and afternoon the scholarship examinations for future students were held, in which 110 visitors participated.

Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock a Chapel Service was held in Bomberger for Ursinus students and the visiting high-schoolers, which was in charge of the Rev. John Lentz, the College pastor.

Present Room Drawing System To Be Scrapped

Sheeder Interested In Seeing That Everybody Gets Square Deal

Calling the present system of room drawing for men unfair and discriminatory, Registrar F. I. Sheeder told a Weekly reporter that the present method of room selection will be abolished, and that next year a new system will be instituted whereby every man will draw for himself, and will be obligated to live in the room for which he has signed up.

"Every one of the forty junior men drawing rooms last Monday signed up for a different room," said Mr. Sheeder, "whereas it is a known fact that most of these men will be living together."

With the present conditions obtaining, it was the custom of upperclassmen to draw rooms for their friends in the lower classes, signing up with them, and then switching around at the beginning of the following school term.

When this practice was brought to the notice of the Registrar's office in the drawings for next year held last Monday, there was talk of nullifying all of the room selections made and holding a new drawing. This proposal was not carried out, said Mr. Sheeder, inasmuch as there was no intimation of a change beforehand.

But next year there will be a general purging of the room drawing system. The room for which every student signs up will have to be occupied by him unless sufficient reason is given to the contrary.

"We are interested in seeing that everybody gets a square deal," the Registrar said.

About 75% of the living quarters in the men's dormitories were taken last Monday, almost every male student in the three lower classes having drawn.

Musical Organizations Present Classical And Modern Program

On Friday evening, April 29, a concert was presented in the chapel of Bomberger by the Ursinus Glee Club and Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. William Philip.

The Ursinus organizations offered a varied musical program of selections, both classical and modern, from Strauss and Schubert to Friml and Romberg.

Soloists were two sopranos, Elizabeth Scherfel '37, who sang "The Russian Lament" by Del Riego; and Dorothea McCorkle '39, who sang "Giannina Mia" by Rudolf Friml; and Louis Krug '37, bass, who sang "Old Man River" from Sigmund Romberg's "Showboat".

MAY 21 IS SET AS TENTATIVE DATE FOR ANNUAL MAY HOP

Friday evening, May 21, has been set as the tentative date for the annual May Hop given by the combined Student Councils. This date must be approved by the Council on Student Activities before it is definitely set.

The committee chosen to conduct the dance is Jean Ulsh '37, chairman, Mary Helen Stoudt '39, Ellen Schlaybach '38, Frank Tworzydlo '37, and Kenneth Wildonger '37.

WSGA ELECTEES TAKE OFFICE IN ANNUAL CO-ED CEREMONY

Ida Trout Hands Scepter Over To Muriel Brandt

The installation of the new Women's Student Government officers took place last Thursday afternoon at 5 p. m. in Bomberger. Opening the program, Hannah Leisse '38, played an organ prelude, and the group sang the Alma Mater hymn.

Then followed the actual release of offices by the retiring members and the taking up of these offices by their successors. Each retiring officer presented her successor with a small bouquet.

Ida Trout '37, outgoing president, administered the oath of office to Muriel Brandt '38, who in turn administered it to the other electees. The other charges turned over were: vice-president, to Grace Lees '39; secretary, to Betty Shearer '40; treasurer, to Nancy Harman '38; senior representative, to Elizabeth Ware '38; junior representative, to Margaret Lucker '39; Day representative, to Marjory Brosz '38.

Frosh Co-eds Pick Posies To Honor Senior Sisters

Did you notice that the freshman girls all appeared bright and early this morning on campus? Reason? Today, at 7 a. m. each freshman girl presented a senior girl with a May basket, according to the traditional custom at Ursinus.

Perhaps yesterday you saw them out picking flowers around the countryside. Maybe some of you male attendants of the fair freshmen even helped pick them. Anyhow, the result was, that every senior girl, all the wives of the faculty members, and the clerks in the offices upon arising this morning found outside their doors lovely baskets of flowers, signs of the coming of May and the permanent arrival of spring.

Chapel was turned almost into a floral show when, also according to custom, all those honored brought their May baskets to the platform and put them on display for all to gaze upon.

... nominations for next year's representatives from the three lowest classes will take place Monday afternoon, May 10: meeting of junior men, Bomberger, Room 3; sophomores, Room 5; freshmen, Room 7. All those nominated will be voted on Tuesday, May 18; 5 juniors, 4 sophomores, and 2 freshmen will be elected, to serve respectively as senior, junior, and sophomore representatives.

CLASS DAY PROGRAM IS SET; REHEARSALS TO START SOON

Fenimore Chooses Sub-Committees, Urges All Seniors To Help

According to Mitchell Fenimore '37, rehearsals for Class Day, which will be held on Friday afternoon, June 4, will begin in the near future, as the script for the exercises is now being put into finished form.

Fenimore, chairman of the class day committee, will be assisted by the following sub-committees:

Class will—Elmer Gaumer, Bradford Stone, Sara Ennis, and Virginia Fenton; class oration—Abe Lipkin, Clayton Worster, and Frank Reynolds; class prophecy — Sara Atkinson, Lillian Lucia, and Katherine Wood.

The program for Class Day will follow in broad lines the traditional form. An address of welcome will be given by the president of the senior class. Following this will be the class will, prophecy and oration.

The mantle oration by the senior class president with a response by the president of the junior class, and the singing by the entire class of the class song, will complete the program in Bomberger. After this program the tree oration by the treasurer of the senior class with a response from the sophomore class president will be held on the west campus.

"The committee would like to urge," said Fenimore, "that the senior class turn out in a body to attend the rehearsals which will be called within a few weeks. It is obvious that the success or failure of this program depends in a large part upon the cooperation extended by the entire senior body."

VESPERS HAS MUSIC THEME

The special Open House Vespers service last night was conducted under the leadership of Alfred Bartholomew '39, and Katherine Wood '37. A musical program was given to carry out the theme that music is the language of God, with the following presentations:

"To a Wild Rose", by MacDowell, piano solo by Rita Harley '38; "No Night There", vocal solo by Albert Bartholomew '39, accompanied by Betty Usinger '40; history of two hymns, "Fairest Lord Jesus" and "Faith of Our Fathers", by Katherine Wood '37; Mendelssohn's "Spring Song", saxophone solo by Stanley Weikel '38; Handel's "Largo", duet by Jane Poling '39, at the piano, and Betty Usinger '40, at the organ.

URSINUS MOVES UP SCHOLASTIC LADDER, ACCORDING TO FRESHMEN PSYCH EXAMS

According to a report received by the College authorities during the past week, Ursinus ranks 28 in a group of 304 accredited colleges and universities in the United States.

The report is based on results achieved by college freshmen in the American Council on Education psychological examination. Tests were administered last September at the opening of the College here.

Norms were established on the basis of returns from 66,111 students in 304 colleges. Last year in a similar test Ursinus ranked 64 in a group of 266 colleges.

The median score for Ursinus freshmen was 212.69, which ex-

Rev. J. W. Meminger '84, To Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon On June 6

The man who will deliver the Commencement address to the Ursinus College graduates of the class of 1937, and the assembled audience, on Monday morning, June 7, is the Rev. J. Harvey Brumbaugh, Litt. D., L. H. D., announced President Norman E. McClure on Saturday.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached on the day previous, Sunday, June 6, by the Rev. James Wilbert Meminger, D.D., of Lancaster, who is an Ursinus alumnus of the class of '84, and who has been a member of the Board of Directors of the College since 1896.

The completed sixty-seventh Commencement Week program is to be approved this week. The ceremonies, which will all be held in Bomberger Hall, begin Friday, June 4, with Class Day, the formal inauguration of President McClure on Saturday, and end Monday with Commencement.

The Rev. Mr. Brumbaugh is an honorary alumnus of Ursinus, and a former president of Juniata College, being connected with that institution at the present time. He is a graduate of Haverford College, and a cousin of former Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Mr. Meminger is secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

College To Use Off-Campus Men's Dormitory Next Year

Due to the present unusual demand for male accommodations at the College caused by increased enrollment, Highland Hall in Trappe, former men's hall and athletic training quarters, will be opened next September for the rooming accommodation of approximately twenty men.

This group will be "invited," says Registrar F. I. Sheeder, to live off-campus and will be selected from the present student body. Their rooms will be cheaper than the usual dormitory rate. An unmarried member of the faculty will live with them.

In 1924, Highland Hall was used to accommodate freshmen, and, two years later, the Athletic Association used it for a training hall. From 1930 until last year it was the residence of R. C. Johnson, Director of Athletics. The property covers twenty-two acres. The entire hall will be completely refurnished.

FROSH ENROLLMENT DOUBLES LAST YEAR'S OF SAME DATE

The enrollment for next year's freshman class during the month of April has increased approximately one hundred percent over that during the same month last year.

During April, 1936, 53 students had enrolled. This year more than 100 students had enrolled up to noon last Friday. Of this number the boys and girls were equally divided.

RUBY TO APPEAR MAY 15; DR. MCCLURE'S OPENING ADDRESS INCLUDED IN ANNUAL

It is expected that the 1937 Ruby will appear on the campus for May Day, Saturday, May 15. The staff is now reading proof and the book will go to press by the end of the week. Although smaller in size than the last three issues, the 1937 edition promises to present a compact, comprehensive record of the past year's college activities.

The book will be bound in a simply designed, red, padded cover with a gold moorish and gold lettering. Included in the body of the text will be a scenic section of new formal and informal campus photographs, printed in a deep mahogany duotone ink on pebbled paper.

As a result of the favorable reception given to the address of President McClure at the opening of the academic year, the editors have included the major portion of that address. It has not appeared in any other published form to date.

Most appealing in human interest is the tabulation of the senior questionnaire. The "57" varieties of senior characters are listed in the Who's Who Among Seniors, which serves as a medium for presenting the seniors as others see them. As an upset of the tradition of big, domineering athletes, the class elected two prominent lettermen as the most hen-pecked males.

Topping the qualities which each sex would demand of the other in choosing a marriage partner is intelligence. A critical observer has already pointed out the tremendous handicap which many seniors will labor under if their husbands or wives fulfill this requirement. One honest male, however, had the courage to write in "figure" as his first requisite for a partner.

Siebert Pancoast, business manager, and the advertising staff have completed the advertising campaign; the circulation staff will now close its drive before the distribution date. Books will be distributed upon the presentation of receipts or payment of four dollars. All seniors who paid class dues by February 1 may order their books at the earlier subscription rate of $3.50, but to all others the Ruby will sell at the regular price.

PLEA FOR MOTHERS

Last year at May Day a deplorable condition existed which should, if possible, be remedied this year. If you remember, the day on which our mothers were our guests was one of those extremely hot days, one on which we'd much rather be just sitting doing nothing. Yet, our mothers had to stand lined up on the steps of Freeland, under a blistering sun, waiting to buy banquet tickets, not just a few minutes, but for a long time. There were some near fainting, and all were extremely uncomfortable.

If tickets were sold the week before in the treasurer's office as they were for Father's Day, this unnecessary discomfort could be eliminated, and our mothers would, without doubt, enjoy themselves far more.

THE ROOM DRAWING CHANGE

Mr. F. I. Sheeder is right about the present men's room drawing system. We know it is unfair, and so do you know it is unfair. Perhaps the main reason that nothing has been said in this column about it before is that editors in the past as well as in the present have been no more scrupulous about perverting the drawing privilege than have most other campus men.

But we throw our own cupidity to the winds, and support the proposed renovation whereby every man in every class will have the equal opportunity of getting the more desired rooms. The old way was "chiselling", which should be no part of a man's education.

Bears Tie Bucknell In Called Encounter

Temple Owls Conquer Bears 13-3 Earlier In Week

On Friday the Ursinus stickmer, came close to registering a league win against Bucknell, but the best they could do was a tie, 9-9, called at the end of the ninth because of a time ruling.

Each time Swift was in trouble it was due to poor fielding. He limited the Bisons to nine swats and struck out eleven batters in eight and one-third innings. Clark, who relieved him, dampened a ninth-inning flare-up and drove in the tying run with a single to right. Ursinus collected fifteen safeties from the offerings of three pitchers.

Temple shellacked the Bears on Wednesday, 13-3. A two run lead vanished in the fourth. Zoll replaced Gemmell in the second six-run uprising in the sixth. Wildonger had the first Ursinus home run of the season.

For Digestion's Sake... SMOKE CAMELS

THE delightful effect of smoking Camels with your meals and afterwards has been proved again and again in the great laboratory of human experience. Explorers, champion athletes, people in hazardous outdoor work, as well as millions of men and women in homes and offices, find that Camels get digestion off to a good start and make the perfect ending to a meal. When you enjoy Camels, you are rewarded with an increased flow of digestive fluids—alkaline digestive fluids—so important to good digestion. And you can enjoy Camels as often as you like! Camels don't get on your nerves.

TOUGH COURSES come easier with Camels! Smoking Camels eases tension— aids digestion too. For when you smoke Camels at mealtime and afterward, you encourage a sense of well-being, contentment. Camels give you a refreshing "lift" in energy when you need it most. Camels never get on your nerves or tire your taste!

DEEP IN THE JUNGLE FASTNESS of Central America amid the ruins of a lost city... Lawrence T. K. Griswold (right) has headed expeditions to Tibet, Komodo, the Amazon, and the lost cities of the ancient Mayas. He lists Camels as one of the necessities on the trail. "At best, eating in the jungle is no picnic," says Griswold. "I've found that smoking Camels is an aid to my digestion. Camels ease tension and give me a 'lift' in energy when I need it most."

THIS CO-ED SAYS: "Camels set me right. Mental work often has an effect on digestion too," adds Miss Josephine O'Neill. "During meals Camels are a big aid to digestion. After meals they make food seem twice as good." Camels are mild!

A FLIGHT DISPATCHER. "I often eat my meals on the job," says H. G. Andrews, TWA flight dispatcher. "Camels help my digestion behave itself. Being mild, Camels don't get on my nerves."

COSTLIER TOBACCOS!

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

High School Trackmen Lower 3 Field Marks

The second annual Ursinus College Interscholastic Track and Field Meet held on Patterson Field here last Saturday, attracted athletes from twenty-six high schools in District One of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association.

Under a blazing mid-spring sun, before a stand packed with visitors and Open House prospective Ursinus students, the high school

I wish to thank the members of the faculty and student body for their very able assistance in making the track meet on Saturday a fine success.

R. C. Johnson

boys again had no regard for records, even as they had none last year. Three Patterson Field records and ten Ursinus Interscholastic Meet marks were shattered.

Norristown Leads Class A

According to their size and substance, the high schools competed in either Class A or Class B. Norristown High School swept the field to win team honors in Class A by piling up 62 points to Lower Merion's 53½, making the latter runner-up.

In Class B, Ridley Park's team carried home the bacon, also by virtue of superiority in the field events. It garnered 38½ points to nose out Ambler, which had 31½ counters.

The Patterson Field records that were broken were in the high and broad jumps and in the pole vault. In the high jump, Burnett of Media cleared six feet and one-quarter inch to wipe McKinney's record, made in last year's meet by the Norristown schoolboy, from the books.

One of the few field records held by Ursinus trackmen, the broad jump mark of Woody Robbins at 22 feet one and three-quarter inches set by him last spring, went down as Harry Duval, Ridley Park leaper, won the Class B event with a jump of 22 feet four and one-half inches.

An Ambler High youth, Hugh Gehman, cleared 11 feet eight inches to win the Class B pole vault and break the Meet and Field record of 11 feet three inches set at the Interscholastics here last year. The officials for this meet were provided by the Officials' Club of Philadelphia, aided by the College's Department of Physical Education and several faculty members. The entire affair was under the direction of R. C. "Jing" Johnson, Ursinus Athletic Director.

Howard Wise and Richard Dunn have already advanced to the quarter-finals in the ping-pong tournament. Rudolph, John Wise, Fenimore, and Wozniak are other outstanding players still remaining in the tourney.
